Sabbath School Lesson No. 3
April 18, 1970
Subject: Is It Nothing To Thee?
Keytext: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself. Luke 10:27

This is an age in which everyone minds his own business. We often read of innocent persons being robbed or beaten, by land, sea, and air, of tragedies almost next door and hardly give them a second passing thought. The characteristic of a large segment of our society is shrug off all personal involvement with an off hand, "So what?" Our Lord has a message to correct this attitude and to indicate areas in which His followers should be vitally concerned.

On one occasion Jesus was instructing His disciples and the people – And behold a certain lawyer stood up and tempted Him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said unto him, what is written in the law? How readest thou? And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind and thy neighbor as thyself. Luke 10: 25-27. And Jesus said unto him "Thou hast answered right: this do and thou shalt live." But he willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, "And who is My Neighbor?" Luke 10:28-29. Then Jesus related the parable of the Good Samaritan and the wounded man by robbers. A certain priest came that way and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side, and likewise a Levite came along and he also passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan as he journeyed came where he was, and when he saw him, he did five things for him – which are the life life. 1. He had compassion. 2. He rendered him first aid. 3. He provided transportation. 4. Nursed him. 5. Provided financially for him. Jesus asked, "Which now of these three thinkest thou, was neighbor unto him that fell among the thieves? And he said, He that showed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, "Go, and do thou likewise." Think it through –Should we wait for the needy to come to us for help? There is no substitute for personal contacts, our help must be timely.

The Superintendent of the Sunday School is asking all teachers and officers to please be present Friday night. The time is 7:30 p.m. There are important matters to be discussed for the benefit of the School.

The public is cordially invited to worship with us Sunday at 3 p.m. You will be highly entertained by the many beautiful songs that will be rendered during our choir Festival. The program is sponsored by the Sr. Choir for the benefit of the Building Fund.

The Church extend a cheerful get well message to the sick of the Church that they know of Mrs. Virginia Booker, Mr. Charlie Irving, Mrs. Carrie Mae Jones and Mr. Herman Meggginson.

The Pastor and Church extend its deepest sympathy to Mr. Ed Meggginson in the loss of his dear daughter. Therefore be it resolved that commend the family to the Heavenly Father, who only is able to console you in this sad hour. "Just as the sunflower in the morning its head is up, its face follow the sun. In the evening its head is bent, the body withers away and that sunflower is laid aside to come no more. So it was with this little flower an flower, it came into the world to stay just a few months. Then it pleased God to permit death to pluck one of his choice flowers from this garden. Family lift your heads and say she is gone but not forgotten.

STOCKHOLDERS OF AMERICAN TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY

Plan to attend a Wheat & Co., Inc. Seminar on A.T.&T.

American Telephone & Telegraph Company has announced plans to raise $1,569,327,000 in additional capital from its shareholder family. If you hold American Telephone stock on April 10, 1970, you will be given the privilege to participate through purchase rights for debentures with warrants attached. (Purchase rights will be sent to you on or about April 13, 1970.)

Thus, you will soon have to make an important decision regarding this investment opportunity. You may have questions concerning this offering–the largest in history ever undertaken by a publicly owned company.

You should have a thorough understanding of:
1. How to handle your purchase rights. Exercise them? Sell them? Buy more?
2. The nature of stock purchase warrants–how they work, how they can be exercised, how they will be valued.
3. What is meant by "units", "detachable warrants", "debentures with warrants", "rights expiration", etc.
4. The investment merits of the securities offered.
5. The outlook for A.T. & T. and how it plans to utilize this money.

Get the answers to these and other questions at the Appomattox chamber of Commerce, governing bodies of the county and others.

Supervisor John C. Cole accepted the publication on behalf of James A. Smith, president of Appomatox Development Corporation who was unable to be present. Cole said "our relationship (with VEPCO and Southside Coop.) is a real asset to this county." This is information the county might otherwise not get around to compiling, headded and the publication "fits right in with our industrial development corporation."

The county was complimented for its progress in organizing an industrial development corporation. Mr. Layne said, "I think Appomattox has made more progress in a short time than any other area I know of, and it's good sound progress."

Mr. Gill said that Appomattox "set a record for returning data to the power companies to compile for the summary." He said he understood that credit went to the VPI Extension Service and the state extension agent. Also, the tax commissioner, school system and several other information sources.

Mr. Layne said that the summary will not take the place of an economic study, a project he says may be completed within the next six-eight months, possibly a little longer.

On hand for the presentation from Appomattox were H. B. Pack, Jr. mayor of Appomattox; Harry G. Lawson, Commonwealth's Attorney, J. S. Grinnell, C. T. Moses, Jr., and W. Lloyd Vaughan.
